Our counselors just finished our CCRP appointments. We get 60% parental involvement.

Jr. high counselors come in February to start course selection.

5. Trustlands Funds- Alison

We will really start to dig into this over the next couple of months.
Roughly around $150,000.00.

The best investments would be to buy technicians for tier 2 instruction.

We will need to start using some of this money/ask money/drop an aide to use some of this money to start to buy chromebooks.

January we will dig into trustlands

Make decisions in February

March make final decisions on our trustlands budget
